“Knit-Along” Phenomenon Continues this Fall

What is a Knit-Along? A Knit-Along is a group of folks working on the same project with the help, guidance and encouragement of all the other participants. Our spring “knit-alongs” were a great success. Check out our website to see what projects we worked on and some of the happy knitters with their finished projects.

What’s coming up this fall? See page five for all the details.

Fall 2005 Knit-Along Projects

What is a Knit-Along? A Knit-Along is a group of folks working on the same project with the help, guidance and encouragement of all the other participants.

Here's how it works:

You call and register for the Knit-along. You must pre-register so that we have enough patterns set aside for each participant. There is no charge for the Knit-along but you must purchase your materials at TheTangled Web in order to participate. All projects require that your materials be purchased before the first meeting so that your gauge can be completed.
